(i.e., Since 2006, Richard has poured thousands of hours and kilometers into providing opportunities for 140+ intellectually challenged athletes in the Special Olympics Program. He's excelled at directing 30 coaches and volunteers and ensuring they have all the resources needed to run their programs. Richard is an extraordinary mentor, teaching the athletes self-confidence and social aspects alongside the sports skills. As a Special Olympics Regional Coordinator, he wears a number of different hats. He DJs dances for the athletes, he's the head chef at the annual BBQ, and he hosts the province's floor hockey tournaments. Richard is always behind the scenes applying for grants and promoting the program. Richard is an absolute asset to the Special Olympics community.)
